ABOUT US

MedGulf General Trading L.L.C. is a UAE-based Limited Liability Company, owned and managed by experienced engineers with extensive expertise in mechanical and electrical products, industrial machinery, and building materials across the Middle East. Since our inception, we have built a solid foundation as a trusted trading partner, combining years of experience with reliable supply sources and a loyal customer base to thrive in today's dynamic marketplace.

Originally established as a specialized sourcing hub for industrial filtration, automotive spare parts, building materials, equipment, chemicals, and electro-mechanical products, MedGulf has since diversified into a wide range of activities beyond traditional import-export services. We take pride in delivering high-quality products at competitive prices, supported by exceptional customer service.

Our success is a result of our technical proficiency and the dedication of our skilled, highly-trained team. With strong
